

Michael Thompson is the President and CEO of the National Alliance of Healthcare Purchaser Coalitions (formerly NBCH). The National Alliance consists of approximately 50 healthcare purchaser-led coalitions collectively supporting over 12,000 healthcare purchasers providing health coverage to over 41 million Americans. NBCH helps to lead improvements in health, well-being and value for our companies and communities across the country. Prior to joining NBCH, Michael was a Principal with PricewaterhouseCoopers where he consulted on healthcare and employee benefits strategy and served as an executive for Prudential Insurance. He has specialized in cross-sector initiatives related to sustainable cost reduction integrated health, wellness and consumerism, retiree health, health reform and well-being.