

Looking for the best way to impact healthcare outcomes and costs for your employees / business in Houston?

Then you'll want to be a part of the HBCH to understand and influence what happens in Houston.

HBCH is the leading resource for employers dedicated to improving the health and wellness of their employees and was formed by merging the Houston Business Group on Health and the Houston Wellness Association. HBCH brings together every segment of healthcare (employers, health plans, physicians, hospitals, and regulators) to lower costs and improve quality - contributing to the economic viability of the Houston business community.

Membership Benefits :

- ✓ Access to health care leaders and providers in a neutral setting
- ✓ Networking with peer employers and business leaders in healthcare
- ✓ Affiliation with national non-commercial health information sources
- ✓ Preferred rates for HBCH programs
- ✓ Exclusive access to events and educational content and some grant opportunities
- ✓ HBCH aspires to bring local survey information, benchmarking and best practices information to help with your benefits strategy

As a vital part of the business community, you can:

- ✓ Participate in a regular interactive forum for learning and sharing of business health ideas unlike anything else in Houston
- ✓ Access intellectual capital from Houston's thought leaders in healthcare
- ✓ Engage and influence healthcare delivery in the greater Houston area
- ✓ Network with peer employers and business leaders in healthcare
- ✓ Engage in HBCH's program development, quality, wellness and data initiatives

Where else can you have direct access to these kinds of health resources in the Houston area?

Who belongs to HBCH?

Employers of all sizes, local carrier leaders, hospitals, physicians, consultants.

Employer members include: BP, METRO, Silver Eagle Distributors, Air Liquide, City of Houston, Rice University, KBR, MetroNational, METRO, Sasol, HCSS and more.

How do I get involved with HBCH?

Health care costs and trends are issues for every one of us. To learn more about us, visit our website, email or call us.

GROW WITH US AS WE SHAPE THE FUTURE OF HEALTHCARE IN HOUSTON

houstonbch.org 281-809-6960 HBCHmembership@gmail.com

HBCH is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.