

Case Study: Addressing Musculoskeletal Pain And Its Impact On Surgery Spend, Mental Health And Productivity

Christine Fritz
Manatee County Government
Hinge Health

Case Study Summary

1 out of 2 of your employees likely has a musculoskeletal (MSK) condition such as chronic back or joint pain, which is why MSK claims are consistently a top medical spend driver for employers and health plans. Learn how Manatee County Government addressed musculoskeletal-related pain, surgery, absenteeism, and mental health by implementing a comprehensive, evidence-based digital care program.